

2nd. For the Farmers Bank of Maryland:—

3rd. For the Branch Bank of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, at Easton:—

4th. For the Elkton Bank:—

5th For the Hagers Town Bank:—

Messrs. are appointed by this House, to join the gentlemen named in your message to examine and count the ballots, and report the result.

The said message was twice read, when,

The first blank therein, was filled with the names of William Heald, Philip Laurensen, Henry B. Griffith and William Stewart.

The second blank was also filled with the names of Jacob Hollingsworth, Somerville Pinkney and George Wells, Junior.

The third blank was also filled with the names of James Price, William Clark and Samuel T. Kennard.

The fourth blank was also filled with the name of Adam Whann.

The fifth blank was also filled with the names of William D. Macgill, John Wolgamot, senior, John Van Lear, junior, and David Schnebly, the several gentlemen put in nomination, for the respective Banks therein mentioned.

And the sixth blank was filled with the names of Gantt, and Hughlett, as the tellers on the part of this house.

The said message was then agreed to, and sent to the Senate.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill entitled,

A supplement to the act entitled, an act to provide for electing Commissioners for Cecil county, and prescribing their powers and duties, endorsed "Will pass;" also,

A resolution requiring the return into the armory at Annapolis, of certain arms now in possession of John S. Funnell, and Isaac Covington, of Worcester county.

A resolution in favor of Edward Smith, of Dorchester county; and,

A resolution in favor of the trustees of the New Market Academy in Dorchester county, severally endorsed "Assented to"

Ordered, That the said bill and resolutions, respectively, be engrossed.

Also, a resolution directing one set of the acts of Congress to be furnished by the librarian to the Adjutant General, endorsed "Assented to, with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read the first, and, by special order, the second time, and assented to.
